

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Myoderm Expands International Capabilities.

Global leader in commercial drug sourcing hires Matt Grace.

Norristown, PA - January 16, 2012. Myoderm, a global leader in sourcing commercial drugs for clinical trials, is pleased to announce that Matt Grace has joined the company as Director, International Supply Services. He will work out of Myoderm's UK office.

Matt brings to Myoderm 12 years experience working in procurement for AstraZeneca, one of world's leading pharmaceutical companies. While at AstraZeneca, he was an R&D Sourcing Manager responsible for the sourcing of comparators for global trials. His deep understanding of comparator and commercial drug sourcing, as well as his experience with regulatory issues in the EU, will expand Myoderm's ability to proactively anticipate and mitigate risks, and to provide customized solutions for global clients.

Mike Cohen, Managing Director of Myoderm, says, "Matt's experience at AstraZeneca UK and his insights about the EU market will help Myoderm to do an even better job of providing the optimal sourcing solution for each of our clients. I know he'll be a great addition to our team."
